Lauris Zailaa'
Visual Artist

lauriszailaa.com

Lauris Zailaa' is a Lebanese born, Dubai based. An Internationally recognized Visual Artist who describes her self as 'Third Culture Kid'.

Lauris has collaborated with world renowned galleries such as, MB&F where her #ONELOVE Collection, (a poetic modern geometric twist on classic Arabic calligraphy) was chosen to be the Limited Artist's Edition for the world famous 'QLOCKTWO' after being named the '4th International Emerging Artist Grand Winner' and has recently been featured as, 'The Artist of the Week' where her Art works – curated by Emerging Scene – have been shown case & displayed across 1,100+ digital screens across Dubai and Abu Dhabi and across the bridges including DIFC.

Lauris has been best described and celebrated by her mentor, the late Alan Fletcher, (Artist and Author of The Art of Looking Sideways (2001), with his words, 'I love working with Lauris. She looks left when everyone else looks right'.

Provided by Emerging Scene