Yana Rusnak (born in Ukraine on 11th November 1993) ukrainian contemporary artist. In the images of her paintings we see a fusion of the figurative and the abstract. By looking towards the best traditions of contemporary world art, Yana has been able to create a new special form where painting and photography are the tools. Through the photographs, which are conceptual quotations, the artist reveals the idea of the project. They are fixated on the 'dialogue with the universe'. Music, Light, Nature, the Galaxy are the life-affirming emotion of golden energy. Each of the author's works contains a gold nugget. Yana Rusnak's paintings are held in private collections and are on display in commercial buildings in Miami, New York, Cairo, Beirut, Moscow, Dubai, Riyadh, Kiev, London and Geneva.
