- Wine Social has displayed a clearly visible set of rules for customers and restaurant personnel at the entrance that are to be a condition of entry. The rules include instruction to use hand sanitizer, maintain physical distancing from other customers, avoid unnecessary touching of restaurant surfaces, contact information for local health departments, and changes to restaurant services.
- Wine Social has the right, and will, to screen guests for symptoms upon arrival, asked to use hand sanitizer, and suggested to bring/wear a face covering when not eating or drinking. Wine Social will ensure that appropriate signage is prominently displayed outlining proper physical distancing practices.
- Wine Social has taken reasonable measures, including posting signage in strategic and highly visible locations to remind the public that they should use face coverings and must practice social distancing.
- Due to local and state regulations, food must be purchased to receive any alcohol.

- Wine Social employees and representatives have been trained and are required to ensure that Wine Social limits the number of patrons at a single table to a household unit or patrons who have asked to be seated together.

Wine Social cannot and will not accept a group larger than six (6).

All members of the party must be present before seating and hosts must bring the entire party to the table at one time.

People in the same party seated at the same table do not have to be six (6) feet apart.

All members of the party may not move chairs for social distancing guidelines.

- Wine Social employees and representatives have been trained and are required to ensure that at least, but not limited to, one person of each party is recorded in our "Reservation Book".
- Wine Social asks that all customers stay within their designated area unless using restroom, entering, leaving, or getting ahold of a server.
- We have the right to ask consumers to leave if not following these mandatory guidelines.
